The private letters by the Asia agree The election passed off yesterday in comparative quiet. There were disturbances at one or two precincts, and in some words prophlous change in the weather and the rapit improvement of harvest prospects in England and France. The Liverpool and there were fraudulent votes east. We trust that efforts will be made by the proper au. thorities to search out the offenders, and to punish them. It is due to the reputation of too, in the face of heavy supplies from the Back Sea and Mediterraneau. The decided London circulars report a good demand fo our city that these things should be stopped upward tendency in prices, it appears, is the almost entirely to the falling of in the as far as practicable. Compared, however, with the ricts that have disgraced our city, derivaries of the taughish carmers, thus toro and the violence at the polls that have isually attended an exciting contest, it is not so bad. It is the leaven, however, of

In the State of Illinois, there are not so bad. It is the leaven, however, of banks of issue, with a circulation of $\frac{1}{2}$ that Know Nothing rule that should be 981, 720, which is secured with a pledge removed. They principally directed their attention to heating the friends of Phis and Croxton, but were not so exclusive in their attentions as to omit a cuff to any one whom it might strike their fancy to belabor. Some timight strike their fancy to belabor. Some of the police disgraced themselves, we fear, weekly and daily newspapers and period by neglecting to put a stop to these things. At night, rockets were sent up in front of the Journal office and in frout of our office by the friends of Combs, in hour of the overwhelming defeat of the Yancey-Dis-union candidate in our city. At about half- are now enthusiastic for the "Little Giant." past nine an immense crowd gathered in front of the Journal, and from thence pass-Douglas and Bell, with a sprinkling of Breckinridge voices Our senior was called out for a speech, but In a few word; detending the funeral of Disunionism; that we had buried one Disunion candidate for the l'residency, but they had more to do. There was one man yet who could save the Unio ; one whom they all knew-inst man was Stephen A Douglas, of Illinois. The name was recelved with a torrent of applause. Mr. Wm. A. Ellis, the Itamocratic and late for sheriff, who had been defeated, alled upon for a speech by the crowd, that had got an Inkling of his being there. He was received with such rounds of applause, that it was some time before he could comnence. He denounced, in no measured crms, the acts of violence that had occurred in our city, and cloquently deplored them.

He trusted the time would soon come when we would be found again a united Democratic party. He was an old-line Democrat There was no pulse that did not beat true to it. He-had no sympathy with any one who wished to destroy it. He concluded by N w York, and So. 21: Strant, London, and by all Drughets, at 25c, 62 to and $1 per pet or how mu7 deavel saying that he was no speech maker; there was nothing he did worse than make speeches-except to run for sheriff. Mr. Ellis made several efforts to close his remarks, but was urged to continue. It was ### a neat and graceful speech, and emincutly to his credit. Many Bell men declared their high appreciation of him. He had, FRANCE, BROADBENTS & CO.'S they said, in his own language, began and conducted this canvass as a gentleman. From the Democrat they went to the Cou rier, and called for a speech from Col. 61 42 -2 13 49 65 41 -1 59 18 -9 11 53 McKee, but that gentleman was busy hunting for McClarty votes in the election

Bell Last evening there was a fearful ow at a coffee-house on Main, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets. A couple of oarders in the house, the bar-room of which was closed, were sitting out on the side walk, when a parcel of drunken rounders assaulted them. One of the bourders anu away, but the other went inside the case and closed the door. The rowdies kicked the door in and proceeded to smach the furniture, and one of them was fearfully stabled in the melce. The rounders L'Rust threatened to mob the house, and the insates vacated it and sent the key to the Mayor, with a request that he world cause the premises to be prefected.

As the Kentucky Hisunionis's do not eem to run well in Kentucky, we suggest in all kindness, if it would not be a good blea for some of them to run out of it.
